

AITA BIOARCHAEOLOGY

Online Course

DENTAL ANTHROPOLOGY IN FORENSIC CONTEXT

17 hours; Price: 105 €, Returning participant: 84 €

1. The forensic context: introduction and biological profile

- History of Dental Anthropology
- Dental inventory
- Estimate of sex and age of death based on teeth
- PRACTICES

2. General dental condition

- Dental abnormalities
- Metabolic stress and the reflection on the teeth
- PRACTICES

3. Dental pathology in skeletonized remains

- Dental wear
- Tooth decay and periapical inflammation
- Periodontal disease
- Recognition of the type of tooth loss: antemortem, perimortem and postmortem
- PRACTICES

Contact: aitabioarch@gmail.com

AITA BIOARCHAEOLOGY

Online Course

DENTAL ANTHROPOLOGY IN FORENSIC CONTEXT

17 hours; Price: 105 €, Returning participant: 84 €

4. Maxillofacial pathology for personal identification

- Identification of maxillofacial and temporo-mandibular pathologies in archaeological remains
- PRACTICES

5. Forensic dentistry

- Forensic anthropology of dental interest
- Dental-forensic study of personal marks
- Introduction to Forensic Toxicology

6. The role of teeth in identifying victims of crimes against humanity

- The Spanish Association for the Recovery of Historical Memory (ARMH)
- Study cases in Spain

DISCOUNT

Special discount for 2 courses joined – 20% off!